

golfcourse
matters

clubhouse matters

you matter

mm
material matters

Material Matters Newsflash!

Speakers of Interest Delivering Material that Matters

Don't Delay - Book your space today

Updated information for the Material Matters workshop at Windlesham Golf Club on Thursday 10th October

Speaker's Corner : Topics of Interest

Stuart Christie (Secretary) Walton Heath Golf Club - Balancing the needs and expectations of the member, against the commercial reality of operating a financially successful Private Members Club.

Andrew Lloyd-Skinner (Owner) North Weald Golf Club, CEO UKGCOA - All matters of taxation for both the Private and Proprietary Golf Club.

Chris Durrant (Partner) The Litmus Partnership, Ex CEO Beacon Purchasing - How to get the most out of group purchasing.

Jim Croxton (CEO) BIGGA - Is your course budget and spend aligned to the product you are trying to achieve? What BIGGA can offer to help you achieve that.

Greg Blesson (Director) Cellar Master Wines, Red Squirrel Brewery - Stand out from the crowd - the benefits of micro-breweries and independent wine suppliers.

Meet the Suppliers:

- Serious Sport - Unique online solution for your uniform and clothing needs
- Red Squirrel/Cellar Master - Independent Wine and Micro Brewery Wholesaler
- 3663 Foodservice - Inspiration on Christmas
- The Real Pie Company - Handmade real pies for real pie lovers
- Blue Earth Training - the modern approach to First Aid Training

Material Matters invites you to its inaugural networking workshop at Windlesham Golf Club on Thursday 10th October 2013 to increase your knowledge from Speakers of Interest in areas that Matter to your business.

There will also be the opportunity to network with other Managers and Owners of both Proprietary and Private Clubs, listen to topics of interest from industry leaders and speak directly to key suppliers.

The day will start with coffee and pastries from 10 am, lunch will be served along with time to network and talk to suppliers, and the day will conclude at approximately 3.30 pm - 4 pm.

Please register your interest now to caroline.skinner@materialmattersltd.com and receive further updates over the coming weeks.

We hope to see you there!